Fee for patent use, as well as responsibility for the breach of protected intellectual property rights of third parties, bears the bidder.

20. MANNER AND DEADLINE FOR SUBMISSION OF REQUEST FOR PROTECTION OF BIDDERS RIGHTS.

Request for protection of rights may submit a bidder, or interested person, who has an interest in the awarding of contracts, in particular public procurement procedure, and who has suffered or could suffer damage due to actions of ordering party, contrary to law.

Request for protection of rights should be submitted to ordering party, and a copy simultaneously to Republic Commission.

Request for protection of rights may be submitted during the entire public procurement procedure, against any action of ordering party, unless the law provides otherwise.

Request for protection of rights, challenging procedure type, contents of the call for bids submission or bidding documentation shall be deemed timely, if received by ordering party no later than seven days before deadline for bids submission, regardless of the method of delivery, and if the applicant is in line with Article 63, Paragraph 2 of the Law, pointed out to ordering party any deficiencies and irregularities, and ordering party did not remove them.

Request for protection of rights challenging actions that ordering party takes, prior to deadline for submission of bids, and after expiry of the period from paragraph 3 of Article 149 LPP, will be considered timely, if it is filed no later than the deadline for tenders submission.

After bringing a decision of awarding a contract, and the decision to terminate the proceeding, the deadline for filing request for protection of rights is ten days from the date of decision publication on the Public Procurement Portal. With a request for protection of rights, acts of ordering party in the procedure of public procurement process cannot be challenged, if the applicant was or could have been aware of the reasons for its submission before the deadline for submission of a request from paragraph 3 and 4 of this Article, and claimant had not submitted it before that deadline.

If in the same procedure of public procurement once again was submitted request for protection of rights, from the same claimant, in this claim cannot be challenged actions of ordering party for which claimant knew or should have known when submitting the previous request.

Request for protection of rights does not retain further activities of ordering party in a public procurement procedure, in accordance with the provisions of Article 150 of LPP.

Ordering party publishes a notice on the filed request for protection of rights on the Public Procurement Portal, and on its website no later than two days from the date of receipt of request for protection of rights, which contains information from Annex 3Lj.

Request for protection of rights must contain:

- 1) name and address of applicant and a contact person;
- 2) name and address of ordering party
- 3) data on public procurement which is the subject of the request, that is, of the decision of ordering party
- 4) violations of regulations governing public procurement procedure;
- 5) facts and evidence to prove the violation;
- 6) receipt of fees payment from Article 156 of this Law;
- 7) applicant signature

If a submitted request for protection of rights does not contain all necessary elements, ordering party shall reject such request by a conclusion.

Submitter of request for protection of rights is obliged to, on a certain account of the budget of Republic of Serbia, pay fee of 60,000 dinars

All instructions, as well as examples and a way of filling in payment slip, in detail can be seen on the official webpage of the Republic Commission for Protection of Rights in the Public Procurement Procedures.
